Qur'an says, "Ward off from yourselves and your families the flames of fire of the Hell." It was to save the community from the hell fire, Maulana Syed Ghulam Askari (T.S.), the illustrious scholar-orator and great visionary has, in 1968, established Tanzeemul Makatib as a part of his more comprehensive religious awakening mission, 'Deeni Bedari Muhim.' It has since developed as the largest network of schools for basic religious education called 'Maktab-e-Imamia' and as an apex body of religious activities. Theology occupies the centre stage of its maktab syllabus, designed, developed & published by itself during the life time of the late founder, when the theology primers have been translated from Urdu into Hindi, Gujarati & Bengali languages. But for their English version we had to wait for a time later when Dr. Manzoor Naqi, M.D. of New Jersey, U.S.A. came forward for the said translation. Hence the organization is deeply indebted to him and his associates who despite having awfully busy life devoted much of their valuable time and labour for this important work with a missionary zeal.

Now, when the original theology primers have been revised, it was felt to revise the English version too, which alhamdulillah has been completed, brought out and is in your hand. I am confident it will serve the larger interest of the students of theology.

May God grant us more strength to serve cause of the religion.
